

Walking in Autistic Shoes

An autism presentation and question-answer forum with renowned author, lecturer and autism consultant

Donna Williams

Wednesday 20th October 2010,
1pm-2.30pm and 7pm-8.30pm

Born in 1963, thought deaf and assessed as psychotic at the age of two, Donna Williams acquired functional speech in late childhood and was diagnosed with autism in her 20's. The author of ten books in the field of autism, an international public speaker and autism consultant, and artist and musician, Donna will provide a fascinating insight into the world of Autism as someone who has actually been there. The sessions provide ample time for Q & A from the audience.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY:

“The "feel good" feeling you get after the event is amazing. My manager found it the best lecture she had attended in her whole career!”

“Never have I sat through a seminar that held me captivated the entire time. Donna is an expert on the subject and if you think you know a lot about Autism then think again”.

“Donna Williams' talks are spell-blindingly powerful. I regard her as the preeminent speaker on autism, from a powerful inside-out perspective”.

“As remarkable a spokeswoman, activist, artist, author, and musician Donna is, her humanity is what really sets her apart; her humor, passion, wit and insight into the world around her; her ability to see beauty in everyday things, her playfulness, her way of being in the world. Donna not only changed the way I see people with autism; she changed the way I see everyone”.

“Donna shares her knowledge with her audience in a way which makes it one to one, when in a room of hundreds. I would recommend her as a 'never to be missed' speaker”.

“Donna's passion for her autism topics dominate the whole room leaving you wanting more”.

“In the years I have read many books on Autism but the most extraordinary and significant experience in my personal and professional life was my meeting with Donna Williams”.
